

2018's Top 10 World's Best Hospitals for Medical Tourists™ to be announced.

- Major leading hospital lowers standards, is removed from Top 10.
- Travel media advised to take care and follow guidelines when writing about hospitals and clinics for medical tourists.

March 7, 2018 – Berlin – Surprise and shock awaits the medical tourism industry when it is announced today that a major medical tourism hospital has been dropped from the Top 10 World's Best Hospitals for Medical Tourists™.

Julie Munro, president of Medical Travel Quality Alliance MTQUA, the industry's global standards setter, today will announce 2018's new list of the best hospitals in the world for medical tourists, one for each of 10 countries.

Ms. Munro will also outline the three most important trends in medical travel and tourism for this year, and name the hospitals in Europe, Asia, and North America that illustrate these trends.
